NRB at Raider Mecca–September

NRB members used to visit Raider Mecca.

Now they are proud to assist the outstanding efforts of Fans In Black.

NRB members Kevin Janicki, Carlos Lopez-Estrada and John Buswell helped with security.

New York Raider Nation Invasion Party–October

Along with the DC-Metro Raiders Boosters and Jersey Shore Raiders Boosters, the NRB hosted close to 200 Raiders fans and welcomed Phil Villapiano and Henry Lawrence in NJ.

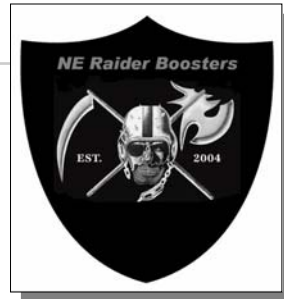

This event clearly illustrated the class and festive nature of Raiders fans.

Left: Taken when the Raiders offensive line was not playing well. These NRB members are applying for the job!

Right: Mike Hartley suffered a life threatening health issue several years ago. Now he is a college freshman!

RIP Larry Turgeon (AKA: Black Hole Raider)

Larry was an original Raiders fan. He was old enough to tell you about games from the 60's and young enough to kick your butt if you parked in his spot. A plaque has been made honoring Larry so he can still be with us every week while we root for the Raiders. In addition, we will host an annual poker tournament in his name.
